NEWS RELEASE

URANIUM INTERNATIONAL CORP. CONTINUES DUE DILIGENCE
REVIEW ON THIRTEEN EXPLORATION LICENCES COVERING EIGHT URANIUM DEPOSITS IN SWEDEN

DENVER, CO, June 15, 2009 - Uranium International Corp. ("Uranium International" or "the Company") (OTCBB: URNI) reports that the Company is continuing its due diligence review of the thirteen exploration licences covering eight uranium deposits located in Sweden, that it proposes to acquire from Continental Precious Minerals Inc. ("Continental"), as previously announced by news release dated April 30, 2009.

In such news release, the Company incorrectly reported that a new NI 43-101 compliant technical report would be filed within 45 days; however, no such report will be prepared until the Company's due diligence review is completed. The Company confirms that the resource estimates contained in such news release were based on a NI 43-101 compliant report dated July 15, 2005 and restated September 20, 2005, prepared by Telluride & Associates (the "Telluride Report"), which was filed and is available on SEDAR.

The Company confirms that there has been no significant exploration work conducted on the exploration licences since 2005. Accordingly, the results contained in the Telluride Report and the resource calculations contained therein remain unchanged.

Uranium International is presently reviewing other potential uranium properties. No other agreement has been entered into as of the date of this news release.
